

English subjects

Chinese New Year

၈.၂

By Kru'Montawan

- Haiku is a _____ form of poetry. It usually uses Chinese New Year as its topic.
- It has a _____ that does not rhyme.
- It usually describes things about Chinese New Year like dragons, lanterns, fireworks, family & celebrations.
- It paints a _____ but _____ picture with words.
- During Chinese New Year, people celebrate with family and friends by sharing _____ and good wishes.
- Children often receive a red envelope called a _____ as is a symbol of good luck.

Write Your Chinese New Year Haiku

_____ (5)

_____ (7)

_____ (5)

ELEMENTS OF HAIKU

1. It must only be _____ lines in length.
2. It must follow the _____, _____, _____ syllable pattern.
3. It must use elements that connect it to the _____ word.

CHINESE NEW YEAR WORD BANK

Name: _____ Class: _____