The Little Ant and the Grain

One hot afternoon, a little ant was walking near a field. She was very hungry. Suddenly, she found a big grain of rice on the ground.

The grain was much heavier than the ant. She tried to pull it, but it did not move. Then she had an idea. She went back to her ant hill and asked her friends for help.

Soon, many ants came with her. They all held the grain and worked together. Slowly, slowly, they moved the grain to their hill.

That night, the ants shared the grain and had a big feast. The little ant was happy. She learned that with teamwork, even a small ant can achieve something big.
