My jungle adventure

Since I returned from my ten-day holiday in Peru, friends have asked me, "Where have you been?" I love answering, "Oh! I went to South America!"

I went there with my parents. There were ten of us in the group but we'd never met each other before. On the first day, we travelled with a guide for eight hours up the river to our jungle camp. It was so exciting to be in the Amazon rainforest! Noisy parrots and monkeys filled the trees and I saw insects of all sizes and colours on the paths around our tents.

We always felt safe when our guide, Omar, was with us. Omar could speak English, French and Spanish and came from a village far away on the other side of the mountains. One day he took us down the river in a wooden boat made from a single tree. Another day, he took us into the jungle and found all kinds of unusual trees and flowers for us to look at. He even cooked a lovely sweet rice dish for us to eat before we went to bed at night.

My holiday in Peru was a great adventure and I'll never forget it.
