Costa Rica has many beautiful beaches, but Santa Teresa and Puerto Viejo are two of the most popular beach destinations in the country. Although both places are attractive and vibrant, they have different characteristics. They can be compared according to their environment, activities, and lifestyle.

First, regarding the environment, Santa Teresa is generally more spacious and less crowded than Puerto Viejo. However, Puerto Viejo is greener and more vibrant, with a colorful natural environment. While both beaches are beautiful and clean, Santa Teresa can be busier and noisier during the high season. Puerto Viejo, in contrast, is often quieter, more peaceful, and more serene. For many visitors, its natural environment is one of its most remarkable characteristics.

Second, in terms of activities, both destinations offer many interesting things to do. Santa Teresa is more popular for surfing, while Puerto Viejo is well known for its beaches, nature, and Caribbean culture. Compared to Santa Teresa, Puerto Viejo has a more historic and traditional atmosphere. Whereas Santa Teresa has a more modern and international feel, Puerto Viejo offers a more local and cultural experience. For many tourists, surfing in Santa Teresa is one of the most outstanding activities, while exploring the natural surroundings is a key experience in Puerto Viejo.

Finally, when comparing lifestyle, Santa Teresa can be more expensive than Puerto Viejo, especially because of its popularity among international tourists. In contrast to Santa Teresa's modern and busy areas, Puerto Viejo can offer a more relaxing and peaceful experience. As opposed to the more developed areas of Santa Teresa, some parts of Puerto Viejo feel less modern and more connected to nature. However, both destinations have essential services for visitors, such as restaurants, accommodation, and transportation.

Overall, Santa Teresa and Puerto Viejo have many things in common, but they offer different experiences. Santa Teresa is one of the most popular and modern beach destinations, while Puerto Viejo is one of the most vibrant and culturally noteworthy. Although some differences, such as price or noise, may seem minor, the atmosphere and lifestyle of each place are key factors when choosing between them. Some details may be trivial or insignificant, but the remarkable natural beauty, activities, and atmosphere make both beaches outstanding destinations in Costa Rica.

1. Regarding the environment, Santa Teresa is more spacious and less crowded than Puerto Viejo.
2. In contrast, Puerto Viejo is generally quieter, more peaceful, and more serene than Santa Teresa.
3. While both beaches are beautiful and clean, Santa Teresa can be busier and noisier during the high season.
4. In terms of activities, Puerto Viejo is the most popular destination for surfing compared to Santa Teresa.
5. Compared to Santa Teresa, Puerto Viejo has a more historic and traditional atmosphere.
6. Whereas Santa Teresa has a more modern and international feel, Puerto Viejo offers a more local and cultural experience.
7. When comparing lifestyle, Santa Teresa can be less expensive than Puerto Viejo.
8. As opposed to Santa Teresa, Puerto Viejo can offer a more relaxing and peaceful experience.
9. Overall, Santa Teresa is one of the most vibrant and culturally noteworthy beach destinations in Costa Rica.
10. Although some differences may be minor or insignificant, the atmosphere and lifestyle of each place are key factors when choosing between them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS