

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a fairground. In the center is a large Ferris wheel with a purple frame and colorful, multi-colored passenger cars. Above the wheel, a string of colorful triangular flags (green, yellow, orange, red, purple, blue) hangs across the top. To the left and right of the wheel are two striped tents, one red and white, and the other orange and white. A red balloon and a green balloon are floating on the right side. The background is white with small blue stars. The entire scene is enclosed in a blue border.
