A Busy Saturday

My name is Ben. Last Saturday was very busy and exciting. I got up at half past seven and had breakfast with my family. At nine o'clock, I went to a sports club with my friends. We played football, swam in the swimming pool and learned some new games.

After lunch, I went home and finished my homework. Then I used my laptop to do a science project about rainforest animals. I found information on the internet and wrote notes in my notebook.

In the evening, my parents and I went to my cousin's birthday party. There were lots of cakes, biscuits and lemonade. We listened to music and played party games.

I was very tired when I got home, but I was happy because I learned many new things and spent time with my friends and family.
