Chapter 6 Overtime Pay

Overtime / Working on Holidays

Objective: The company has a policy that employees work only during office hours unless it is necessary to work continuously due to an emergency or urgent business needs. In such cases, the company may request employees to work overtime or work on holidays, with the consent of the employees and approval from a supervisor in advance.

1. Eligible Employees

Employees working overtime on regular working days or holidays assigned by their superiors will receive overtime pay.

2. Overtime Payment Rate

- a) Working day: For each additional hour beyond normal working hours on a regular working day, employees will be paid at a rate of 1.5 times their regular hourly salary.
- b) Working on holidays:
 - Employees who do not receive wages on holidays will be paid at a rate of twice their regular hourly salary.
 - Employees who receive wages on holidays will be paid at their regular hourly salary rate.
