

Choose the correct answers. Type the letter (A, B, C, or D) in the blanks.

1. According to the text, what is a main characteristic of slapstick comedy?

- A. It relies heavily on puns and wordplay.
- B. It involves exaggerated physical actions.
- C. It focuses on comedians making fun of their own flaws.
- D. It is performed exclusively by wild animals.

2. What do comedians do in self-deprecating humor?

- A. They make jokes about themselves.
- B. They play tricks on other people.
- C. They use exaggerated actions.
- D. They tell jokes with double meanings.

3. Why is surreal humor popular in memes?

- A. It is easily shared in a single image.
- B. It is based on realistic situations.
- C. It often uses double meanings.
- D. It involves exaggerated physical actions.

4. What does the speaker mainly say about practical jokes?

- A. They are a type of humor that depends mainly on spoken language.
- B. They involve playing tricks on people and have been popular for a long time.
- C. They are only successful when people become upset by the joke.
- D. They became the most popular humor thanks to a newspaper story in 1835.

5. Why is it difficult to compare a study on wordplay in English-speaking countries with other countries?

- A. Because wordplay does not exist in other languages.
- B. Because the study only surveyed four countries in total.
- C. Because people in other countries do not enjoy jokes.
- D. Because all the jokes used in the study were in English.