Exercise 3. Put the lines of the dialogue into the logical order:

A: Madrid! Although it is packed with tourists now, but I think we'll manage to book accommodation online.

B: Brilliant idea! I also came across an interesting listing of one B&B. So we won't have to worry about the central heating or air conditioning, the wi-fi password or the public transport.

C: Well, we need something cheap but comfortable. How about B&Bs?

D: Sure! Our destination is Madrid, isn't it?

E: Super! Then book us a room for two in that lovely B&B and confirm our staying at once!

F: I hope so! Yesterday I surfed the internet and read some reviews of big, small hotels. The accommodation there is really expensive! I'm in two minds what to look for.

G: Hey there! Do you have a second to talk about our coming weekend break?
