

SHOULD OR SHOULDN'T? FRIENDSHIP VOCABULARY

Fill in the blanks with "should" or "shouldn't".

1. If your friend is going through a difficult time, you _____ listen to them instead of immediately trying to solve their problems.
2. You _____ share your friend's personal problems with other people. They trusted you with that information, so keep it private.
3. If you know you have made a mistake, you _____ apologize sincerely rather than pretending that nothing happened.
4. You _____ expect your best friend to agree with everything you say. It's healthy for friends to have different opinions.
5. If your friend invites you to their birthday party, you _____ let them know as soon as possible if you can't attend.
6. You _____ cancel plans with a friend at the last minute unless you have a really good reason. It can make them feel unimportant.
7. When a friend achieves something important, you _____ congratulate them and show that you are genuinely happy for them.
8. You _____ make jokes about your friend's insecurities, even if you think they are funny. They might find them hurtful.
9. If your friend seems unusually quiet, you _____ ask them if everything is okay rather than assuming they are simply in a bad mood.
10. You _____ constantly compare yourself with your friends.

Everyone has different strengths, opportunities, and goals.
