

MORE USEFUL VERBS

run into - deal with - figure out - identify - look into - work around - prevent - fix - solve to understand or discover something, especially after thinking about it to stop something from happening to find or recognize exactly what something is to unexpectedly experience a problem or difficulty to repair something or make it work correctly again to investigate or examine a problem to find a different way to do something when the normal way doesn't work to take action to handle a problem or situation

