

John Escott: Young detective (part 3)

1. On Friday afternoon, David came home early. His classes finished at three o'clock. It was snowing and he walked by the computer factory and into the next road.

He saw 2. the back of his own house, and the garden of the house next to it. The house on the left of David's was very big, but he could not see it from the road. It had a large garden with tall trees. The house was 3. behind the trees.

4. An old man and his wife lived there. Their names were 5. Mr and Mrs Lewis. Mr Lewis had a wheelchair. 6. Sometimes David helped Mrs Lewis in the garden, but the garden was too big. It looked like 7. a jungle.

David looked up at the only window at the back of his house. It was the window 8. of Miss Fox's room. And Miss Fox was standing behind it, looking across at the factory.

9. There is something wrong with her, David thought. What is it?

And then he saw what it was.

Her hair is short, he thought.

And it was true. Miss Fox's hair was very short now.

She went 10. to the hairdresser's today, he thought.
