Speaking in Complete Sentences

Apologizing for Coming Late to Class

- It is important to speak and write in complete sentences.
- There are many different kinds of sentences in English.
- We usually need a subject (The bus, I, It, Traffic, etc.) and a verb (was, missed, had, etc.)

Instructions

1. Read the words in the table.
2. The sentences below the table have missing words.
3. Drag and drop the words from the box to complete the sentences 1-6.

was	I	The bus
May	had	missed

1. I _____ the train.
2. _____ was late.
3. I _____ an appointment.
4. ____ am sorry I am late.
5. My child _____ sick.
6. _____ I come in?

LIVEWORKSHEETS