

PRESENT PERFECT – JUST, ALREADY & YET

EXERCISE 7

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Present Perfect

Subject + have/has + V3/ed

1 JUST

Use just for something that happened a short time ago.

Subject + have/has + just + V3

Example:

Tom has just finished his homework.

2 ALREADY

Use already for something that has happened before now.

Subject + have/has + already + V3

Example:

She has already eaten lunch.

3 YET

Use yet mainly in negative sentences and questions.

Negative:

Subject + haven't/hasn't + V3 + yet

Example:

I haven't finished my homework yet.

Question:

Have/Has + subject + V3 + yet?

Example:

Have you finished your homework yet?

Exercise – Complete the sentences

Put the verbs in brackets into the Present Perfect.

1. Tom has just _____ his homework. (finish)
2. Lucy has already _____ breakfast. (eat)
3. I haven't _____ my room yet. (clean)
4. We have just _____ home. (come)
5. She has already _____ the new book. (read)
6. They haven't _____ the museum yet. (visit)
7. Ben has just _____ a new bike. (buy)
8. My parents have already _____ dinner. (cook)
9. I haven't _____ the film yet. (see)
10. The children have just _____ outside. (go)
11. Dad has already _____ the car. (wash)
12. We haven't _____ our teacher yet. (tell)
13. Emma has just _____ a letter. (write)
14. He has already _____ his breakfast. (have)
15. They haven't _____ the project yet. (finish)

LIVEWORKSHEETS