Example:

Girl: Oh, this picture looks boring. Can we make it more interesting?

Man: Yes, good idea. We can colour it. Well, can you see the car which is coming?

Girl: Yes, I can.

Man: Can you colour it green?

Girl: OK.

1. What shall I colour now?

Man: Let's see. Can you see the two boys who are building a (1) _____?

Girl: Yes. The snowman has got a scarf around its neck!

Man: Can you see the taller boy who's behind the snowman? He's waving his hand.

Girl: Yes, I can. Shall I colour him?

Man: Yes. Colour his (2) _____ (3) _____.

Girl: OK.

2. What else shall I colour now?

Man: There is a man in front of the big tree who is skiing. Can you see him?

Girl: Yes, I can. He looks happy.

Man: Color his hat (4) _____.

Girl: OK, I can do that.

3. Would you like to write something now?

Girl: Yes, please.

Man: I want you to write something on the snowman's body.

Girl: What do you want me to write?

Man: I want to give it a name. Can you write the word "(5) _____"?

Man: William. OK.

4. Now for some more colouring.

Girl: Oh, great.

Man: Can you see the girl who is standing behind the little boy? She's making a big snowball.

Girl: Yes, I can.

Man: Look at her (6) _____. Colour them (7) _____.

Girl: OK. It's my favourite colour.

5. Well, there is a (8) _____ next to the green car. Can you find it?

Girl: Yes, I can. I think it's not a café. It's a (9) _____.

Man: Oh, that's right. Can you write the word "(10) _____" on the wall of the restaurant?

Girl: Sure. The picture looks more exciting now, doesn't it?

Man: Yes, it does.
