

PETER'S JOURNAL

MONDAY 23rd:

I didn't get good scores today. I got in trouble at school because I didn't finish my Science Project on time. I knew it was for today, but I didn't start it until yesterday. I didn't have enough time to finish it.

TUESDAY 24th:

Today I'm really excited because of the good news! Our teacher told us that we're going to have an exchange student in our class! His name is Ilhan, so we wrote him a letter and we also prepared a big poster to welcome him!

WEDNESDAY 25th:

I finished my book report, but my best friend spilled apple juice on it. It was an accident, you could still read it. Unfortunately, my Language teacher was upset that I handed it in like that.
