1. Match the words related to imperialism with the definitions

Colonialism	A country ´s ability to use armed forces to achieve objectives
Military power	The acquisition of additional land or territories
Dominance	A policy of extending a country´s power over other countries
Imperialism	The practice of controlling another territory and its people
Overseas territories	Involvement in another country´s policies
Territorial expansion	Territories located outside a country's mainland
Foreign intervention	Control or strong influence over another country
National sovereignty	The authority of a country to govern itself independently.

2) Read and choose the best option

1 When was the Roosevelt Corollary ? In December 1904 In August 1904 In March 1903

2 What was it ? It stated that the United States could intervene in Latin American countries' internal affairs.

It stated that the United States could not intervene in Latin American countries' internal affairs.

It stated that the United States could intervene in European countries' internal affairs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3) The best definition of the word Corollary is . . .

It is a law passed by Congress that cannot be vetoed by the President.

It is a Tariff Duty imposed on a nation in order to pay an outstanding debt.

It is a modification to an edict or some other law that has existed previously and been proven.

4) What was the main purpose of the Monroe Doctrine?

A. To encourage European colonization in Latin America
B. To prevent European powers from interfering in the Americas
C. To establish U.S. colonies in Europe

5 Which event helped encourage Roosevelt to develop the Corollary?

A. The American Civil War
B. The Venezuelan crisis of 1902–1903
C. World War I

6 Why did European powers become involved in Venezuela in 1902–1903?

A. They wanted to establish a new colony there.
B. They wanted to collect unpaid debts.
C. They wanted to help Venezuela industrialize.

7 Which region was most directly affected by the Roosevelt Corollary?

A. Western Europe
B. East Asia
C. Latin America and the Caribbean

8 What does the term "international police power" refer to in the context of Roosevelt's policy?

A. The United States believed it had a responsibility to maintain stability in the Western Hemisphere.
B. The United States created an international police organization.
C. European countries controlled Latin American governments.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9 Why can the Roosevelt Corollary be considered an example of American imperialism?

A. It expanded U.S. political and military influence beyond its own territory.
B. It ended U.S. involvement in foreign countries.
C. It gave European nations control over the Americas.

LIVEWORKSHEETS