LISTEN AND FILL IN THE BLANKS

Listen to the interview.
Fill in the blanks (1) – (10) with ONE suitable word or phrase.

Woman: Hello, everyone! Today I'm talking to a (1) _____.
Welcome, William Smith!

William: Thank you! It's great to be here.

Woman: So, William, tell us - what sport do you play?

William: (0) I'm a volleyball player. (2) I've played volleyball for (2) _____ and I love it!

Woman: And which team do you play for?

William: (3) I play for a team which is called (3) _____. It's a funny name, isn't it? Some people think we should be called (4) _____ or (5) _____, but I like Dinosaurs!

Woman: That's very unusual. When did you start playing volleyball, William?

William: Well, I was interested in volleyball when I was ten years old at school. (6) But I didn't play or join a team until I was (6) _____. So I started playing at age twelve.

Woman: That's quite young! Now, I heard you had a problem in your last match. What happened?

William: Yes, I fell during the game. (7) At first, I thought I hurt my (7) _____, but actually it was my (8) _____. It was quite terrible!

Woman: Oh no! I hope it's better now. And William, do you play any other sports?

William: Yes, I do! (9) I also enjoy playing (9) _____. It's (10) _____ than volleyball!

Woman: That's very different. Well, thank you for talking to us today, William.

William: Thank you very much!

LIVEWORKSHEETS