This movie is about a young bear. He comes to London to find an English explorer who visited the bear's family in the Darkest Peru many years ago. He meets the suspicious Mr. Brown (Hugh Bonneville), the kindhearted Mrs. Brown (Sally Hawkins) and their two kids at the train station, and the daring search for the explorer begins. What they don't know is that an evil taxidermist (Nicole Kidman) is chasing the bear.

When I was three or four, my Mum took me to see this film. I was absolutely terrified. I was so scared about the lady who was trying to kill the bear. But, when I was eleven, my Mum made me watch this movie again and I really loved it. It's my favourite movie now. I recommend watching it because I think it's really funny.

24 of the best junior amateur cooks in the country between the ages of eight and 13 compete, cook and present their dishes to the judges. There are three judges, the most important judge is Gordon Ramsey, who is a chef and a TV presenter. The judges try the food and say whose dish is the best. Every program three contestants with the worst dishes have to leave the show and go home.

I absolutely love this program but I am giving it 3 stars only because they show a preview at the beginning of every episode. The preview shows what is going to happen in the episode. It is a total spoiler and it should be taken off. I watched the first and the second season and then stopped watching it because it got on my nerves. Fix it please!

Teenagers Teddy and PJ Duncan and their 10-year-old brother, Gabe, have to help look after the newest child in their family, Charlotte (nickname "Charlie"), when their parents return to work. While their parents are making their careers, the teenagers are learning how to look after babies and are trying to live a typical teenage life at the same time.

This show is so amazing. It's funny, cute, and nostalgic. I rewatch episodes sometimes because they're really good. The cast is super good, and the lines are hilarious. It's so entertaining and I would love to see a sequel come out called "Thank You Teddy" where Charlie uses Teddy's video diaries to help her in life. Very good show. I definitely recommend it.
