Tom is a 10-year-old boy who has a busy day. He wakes up at 6:30 in the morning. After getting out of bed, he brushes his teeth and takes a shower. Tom then eats breakfast with his family. They usually have cereal, milk, and fruit.

At 7:30, Tom goes to school. His classes start at 8:00. He has math, science, and English lessons. Tom likes science the most because he enjoys learning about animals and plants.

Lunchtime at school is at 12:00. Tom eats a sandwich and some fruit. After lunch, he continues with his classes. School ends at 3:00 in the afternoon.

When Tom gets home, he does his homework. He usually finishes his homework by 4:30. After that, he plays outside with his friends or reads a book.

Dinner is at 6:00 PM. Tom helps his parents set the table and enjoys a meal with his family. After dinner, Tom watches TV or plays a game with his younger sister.

Tom goes to bed at 9:00 PM. Before falling asleep, he reads a book or listens to a story from his parents. He likes to be ready for the next day and hopes to have another fun day.

Questions:

1. What time does Tom wake up in the morning?

.....

2. What does Tom eat for breakfast?

.....
