GRAMMAR present perfect + for / since, present perfect continuous

COME IN ENGLISH

a Correct the mistakes.

Harry is unemployed since last year.
Harry has been unemployed since last year.

1 We've had our new flat since six months. →
2 Hi Jackie! How are you? I don't see you for ages! →
3 How long are you knowing your husband? →
4 Emily has been a volunteer for ten years ago. →
5 Paul doesn't eat anything since yesterday because he's ill. →
6 It hasn't rained since two months. →
7 How long has your parents been married? →
8 They're having their dog since they got married. →
9 I haven't had any emails from my brother for last Christmas. →
10 My grandmother lives in the same house all her life. →

LIVEWORKSHEETS