

A. VOCABULARY: Shopping.

Write each word in the correct category.

cart	cash register	customer	department store	drugstore
grocery store	price	sale	salesperson	shelf

People	Places	Things
customer

B. GRAMMAR: Indefinite pronouns

Complete the sentences below using the indefinite pronouns.

something
somebody
somewhere

anything
anybody
anywhere

nothing
nobody nowhere

everything
everybody
everywhere

- I'd love to try shopping _____ different next weekend, like a local market.
- I don't usually speak to _____ in the supermarket — I just get what I need.
- There's _____ about the smell of fresh bread that makes me hungry.
- I think _____ in my family enjoys food shopping more than I do! I really hate it.
- If I lost my shopping list, I'd look _____ for it before buying anything.
- I don't like going food shopping when _____ is pushing and rushing.
- I always try to shop _____ quiet and not too busy.
- I usually buy _____ small that's not on the list — like a snack or treat.
- I don't buy _____ early in the morning — I'm always in a hurry.
- I believe _____ should learn to cook at least one simple meal.
- _____ always helps me when I can't reach something on the top shelf.
- I know _____ who always forgets to bring their shopping bag!
- _____ in my house enjoys doing the weekly food shop — except me.