TUNAS BANGSA CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
WORKSHEET
2026 - 2027

WORKSHEET ON PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES

Instruction: Identify and write down the prepositional phrases in each of the following sentences, then identify if it is used as an adjective or adverb by writing the word that the phrase modifies.

Example: The kitten under the warm blanket purred softly during the cold evening.

Answers: under the warm blanket – kitten

during the cold evening – purred

1. We hiked for hours through the winding mountain roads to reach the cabin at the edge of the forest. (4)

2. The boy with the bright orange sneakers raced across the muddy field toward the finish line. (3)

3. The letter from my friend in Italy arrived before breakfast, bringing exciting news. (3)

4. The cat under the couch stared silently at the bird on the windowsill. (3)

5. After a long walk in the rain, we gathered around the table in the cozy kitchen. (4)

6. The children around the campfire listened eagerly to the story about the lost treasure. (3)

7. The diary in the locked drawer was discovered by chance during spring cleaning. (3)

8. The girl with the curious mind asked more questions after the science experiment. (2)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. They marched proudly through the crowded streets holding signs with powerful messages. (2)

10. The cookies in the tin by the window disappeared before anyone noticed. (3)

11. The playground behind the school remained quiet until the bell rang for recess. (3)

12. She ran quickly across the field to meet her brother by the big oak tree. (2)

13. The flowers in the vase on the piano brightened the room with their vibrant colors. (3)

14. The travelers on the dusty road stopped to rest under the shade of a large tree. (2)

15. The dog with the floppy ears barked loudly at the stranger near the gate. (3)

LIVEWORKSHEETS