Anna's Blog: My Talented Friends & Family

Hi everyone! Welcome back to my blog. Today, let's talk about what we can and can't do!

I love being active and creative. I can ride a bike and I can swim very well, but I can't play the guitar (music is too difficult for me!) and I can't play football.

My brother, Tom, is completely different. He can play football like a real champion, but he can't swim because he is afraid of deep water. He also can't ride a bike yet, and he definitely can't play the guitar.

My best friend, Maya, is the artist of our group. She can play the guitar beautifully and she can swim with me at the pool. However, she can't ride a bike and she can't play football at all.
