

1 Fill in the gaps with the correct relative pronoun or adverb: who, which, whose, when, where or why

1. The teacher _____ you spoke to is Ms Parks.
2. Do you remember the restaurant _____ we had that amazing lunch last week?
3. Cooking is a skill _____ children should learn from primary school.
4. The green coat _____ was left on the school bus is John's.
5. I was in Brazil in 2014, _____ the World Cup was on!
6. Jack, _____ dad we saw at the shop this morning, is a friend of my brother's.
7. Ron Weasley, _____ is one of Harry Potter's best friends in the book, has red hair.
8. Mayfield Hospital, _____ my uncle is being treated, is on the outskirts of town.
9. Portugal, _____ capital is Lisbon, is on the western edge of the Iberian Peninsula.
10. _____ Some of the best classical music pieces _____ I have ever heard were composed by Bach.

2 Choose the correct sentence.

- 1 Uncle Tom, who speaks six languages, is coming to visit next week.
Uncle Tom who speaks six languages is coming to visit next week.
- 2 She doesn't know Wales, where her mother is from, very well at all.
She doesn't know Wales where her mother is from very well at all.
- 3 He gave me some ideas, which I found helpful.
He gave me some ideas which I found helpful.
- 4 People, who park here, will be fined.
People who park here will be fined.
- 5 Manuel, who works at the bakery, is Spanish.
Manuel who works at the bakery is Spanish.

3 Choose the correct item.

- 1 Whereas Although Ben had been working hard all morning, he didn't feel tired.
- 2 The interview went very well, yet because I'm not sure if I'll get the job.
- 3 In spite of Even though the strong winds, the plane took off.
- 4 Bicycles are so beneficial to the environment. On account of On the other hand, they are not as comfortable as cars.
- 5 He wasn't wearing a coat although despite it was very cold.
- 6 The house was in bad condition despite yet being recently renovated.
- 7 He put the dog on a leash to prevent it from running run away.
- 8 He called a taxi in order not to be being late.
- 9 We use a corkscrew for to opening bottles.
- 10 She asked for the manager so that she can could complain about the service.

4 Choose the correct item:

- 1 It was such a so such such an nice day that we had breakfast in the garden.
- 2 She was talking such a so such such an quickly that I couldn't understand what she was saying.
- 3 He studied such a so such such an little for the exam that he failed it.
- 4 John drank such a so such such an much coffee in the afternoon that he couldn't sleep at night.
- 5 It was such a so such such an good party that no one wanted to go home.
- 6 There was such a so such such an amusing film on TV last night that I stayed up until 2 am.
- 7 The knife was such a so such such an sharp that I cut myself.