

Section 1: Vocabulary

Choose the correct verb for each sentence.

1. She _____ her finger while she was peeling onions.
 - A. cut
 - B. broke
2. She slipped on a banana peel and _____ her ankle.
 - A. twisted
 - B. banged
3. He fell off the ladder and _____ his back.
 - A. hurt
 - B. cut
4. She fell off the horse and _____ her leg.
 - A. broke
 - B. banged
5. He _____ his wrist while he was playing basketball.
 - A. sprained
 - B. twisted
6. As he stood up, he _____ his head on the shelf.
 - A. twisted
 - B. banged

Section 2: Punctuation

Rewrite the sentences with the correct punctuation (apostrophes, commas, question marks, or exclamation marks).

1. Whats wrong with you
2. Are you all right Steve
3. Whats the matter
4. You poor thing
5. Ill let you know
6. My ankle hurts

Section 3: Everyday English

Match the questions (1-4) with the correct responses (a-d).

Questions:

4. Are you all right, Susan?
5. Do you want me to call an ambulance?
6. I hope everything will be OK.
7. Oh dear! Is it better?

Responses:

- a. No, thanks. I'll go to the doctor this afternoon.
- b. No, it's killing me!
- c. I'm fine thank you.
- d. Thanks. I'll let you know.

Section 4: Listening

Listen to a hospital doctor talking to a little boy's father and choose the best answer.

1. The doctor's name is:
 - A. Dr. Robbins
 - B. Dr. Wiley
 - C. Dr. Reed
2. The accident happened when:
 - A. Billy was walking down the stairs.
 - B. Billy was painting on a ladder.
 - C. a painter's ladder fell on Billy.
3. Billy has hurt:
 - A. his arm
 - B. his leg
 - C. his shoulder
4. How did Billy get to the hospital?
 - A. His teacher took him.
 - B. His friends took him.
 - C. The principal came with him in an ambulance.
5. How long will Billy stay in the hospital?
 - A. two days
 - B. four days
 - C. a few days