Commas & Conjunctions II

A comma is used just before a little conjunction (and, but, for, nor, or, so, yet) to separate two different clauses or parts of a sentence.

Example: I did not take your chewed up pencil, nor did I take your dirty sock collection.

Rewrite each sentence with commas in the proper places. Underline the conjunctions.

1. I like ice cream but my little sister eats bugs.

2. I did not eat pizza on the moon nor did I eat hotdogs.

3. Susie owned a monkey yet she wanted a goldfish.

4. Jim wore his swimsuit to school but he did not wear his goggles.

5. Andy forgot to bring his bowling ball to the beach so he had to go back and get it.
