

ZERO CONDITIONAL THANKSGIVING

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. If families _____ (eat) Thanksgiving dinner together, they _____ (feel) happy.
2. If you _____ (cook) a turkey for a long time, it _____ (become) tender.
3. If people _____ (be) hungry, they _____ (eat) more food.
4. If you _____ (add) sugar to cranberry sauce, it _____ (taste) sweeter.
5. If the turkey _____ (be) hot, people _____ (wait) before eating it.
6. If families _____ (have) Thanksgiving dinner, they often _____ (say) what they are thankful for.
7. If you _____ (eat) too much pumpkin pie, you _____ (feel) full.
8. If guests _____ (bring) food to Thanksgiving dinner, the host usually _____ (thank) them.
9. If people _____ (not like) turkey, they _____ (choose) another dish.
10. If you _____ (put) gravy on mashed potatoes, they _____ (taste) delicious.
11. If children _____ (be) at the Thanksgiving table, they often _____ (talk) about their favorite food.
12. If you _____ (eat) cranberry sauce, you _____ (taste) a sweet and sour flavor.
13. If families _____ (watch) the Thanksgiving parade, they _____ (see) colorful floats.
14. If people _____ (be) thankful, they _____ (share) their feelings with their family.