

TOPIC 15

REPRODUCTION IN PLANTS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

EXERCISE 15.1: PARTS OF FLOWER

Marks:

15

☐ Excellent

☐ Good

☐ Well done

☐ Needs improvement

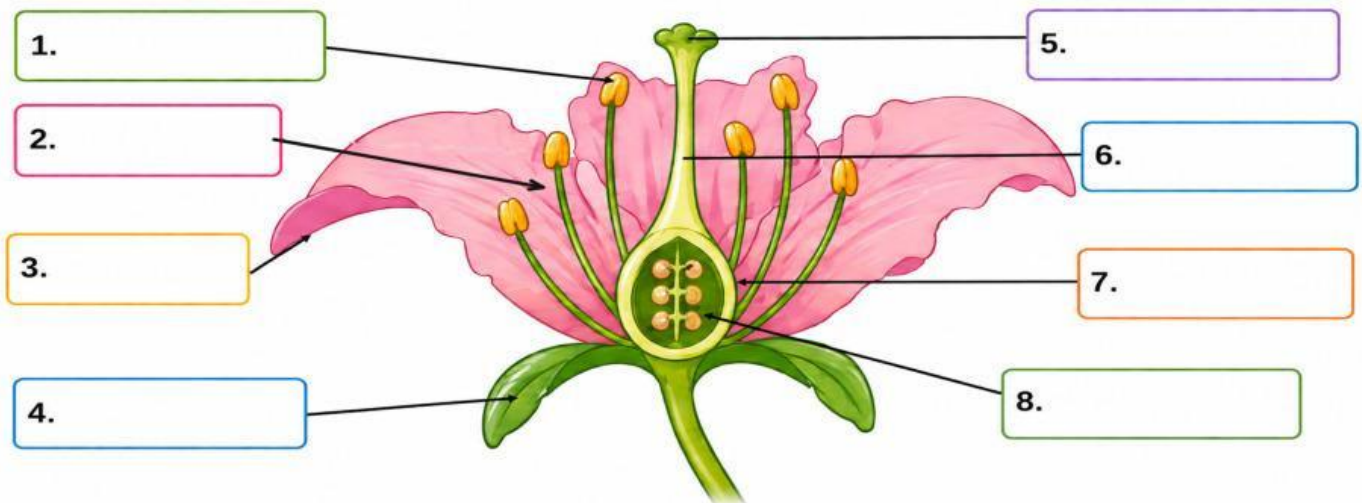

☐ Very Good

☐ Do correction

Checked by: Cg Hirnani

Date: _____

1 The diagram shows a cross-section of a flower. Label the parts of the flower as shown below.

2 Using a pencil, match the following parts of flower below with the correct functions.

Parts of flower

Sepal

Stigma

Petal

Anther

Ovary

Functions

Produces female sex cells (gametes)

Attract insect and animal to the flower

Produces male sex cells (gametes)

Protect young flower before it opens

Receives pollen grain

3 The male part of a flower is called a _____. It consists of anther and filament.

4 The female part of a flower is called a _____. It consists of stigma, style, ovary and ovule.