Before You Read

An old lighthouse has been empty for a long time. One night, Adam sees a light at the top. What do you think is happening?

Read: The Lighthouse Mystery

Adam was staying with his uncle in a small village near the sea. At the end of the village was an old lighthouse. Nobody worked there anymore.

One windy evening, Adam looked out of the window. Suddenly, he saw a bright light at the top of the lighthouse. It flashed once, then disappeared.

The next morning, Adam and his uncle walked to the lighthouse. Near the door, Adam saw fresh footprints in the wet sand. He also found a small piece of blue cloth on the fence.

'Someone was here,' said Adam. The door was locked, so they did not go inside. They took a photo of the clues and told the village caretaker.
