

Retail Therapy

Shopping for a brighter you

Read the text and choose the correct word from the box to fill in each gap.

Leila had a busy week at school, so on Friday she decided to visit a new shopping mall. She enjoys walking around different stores and looking at the latest _____ (1). She doesn't always buy something, but sometimes she finds good _____ (2) on clothes and accessories. Leila likes to compare prices before _____ (3) anything. She also pays attention to the _____ (4) name, because she trusts some brands more than others. At the end of the day, she feels happier. For Leila, shopping is a simple way to relax and take a break from her routine. It really gives her a positive _____ (5).

Word Bank

Just a little happier ♥

addiction

brand

charm

bargains

buying

selling

malls

logos

opportunities

passion

products

slogans

trading

advertising

shopping

SHOP

EXPLORE

DISCOVER

BE YOU