Part C

Read the paragraph. Replace the incorrect words with a word from Unit 1.

Teenagers use many different skills in their daily lives. Good talking [1] is important because it helps people share ideas and understand each other. When a school newspaper publishes an interesting title [2], it can make more people want to read the article. Before students organise a dangerous school activity, they should complete a safety check [3] to think about possible problems. Teenagers also need adaptation [4], which helps them change the way they behave depending on the people and situation around them. If a group of workers stops working because they want better pay or conditions, they leave work [5]. Finally, young people with a great idea for a project might use asking lots of people for small amounts of money [6] to raise the money they need.

1. _____	2. _____	3. _____
4. _____	5. _____	6. _____
