Writing Assistance: A Versatile Tool

on the tip of your tongue (the one that means exactly what you want, but isn't "nice").

4. Technical Polish

While I'm more than just a spellchecker, I do handle the heavy lifting of mechanics:

- Grammar & Syntax: Fixing those pesky comma splices or passive voice ruts.
- Conciseness: Cutting the fluff. If you can say it in 10 words instead of 30, I'll find a way.
- Formatting: Organizing data into tables, lists, or clear headings to improve scannability.

Pro Tip: I work best when you give me context. Instead of asking "Fix this," try "Make this sound more persuasive for an executive audience" or "Make this dialogue sound like two people who haven't had their morning coffee."
