

1. What do very young children need to avoid getting involved in crime?

- A. A strong sense of responsibility
- B. Proper care and supervision
- C. More freedom and independence
- D. Regular contact with their friends

2. What might children start with before committing more serious crimes?

- A. Stealing small things from shops
- B. Breaking into other people's houses
- C. Taking money from their parents
- D. Damaging cars in public places

3. Why may young people become involved in crime?

- A. They want to impress their parents
- B. They are influenced by their friends
- C. They have too much schoolwork
- D. They want to become more independent

4. What has increased significantly in Speaker C's area?

- A. The number of unemployed people
- B. The amount of street violence
- C. The level of criminal activity
- D. The number of young people

5. Why do some people turn to crime?

- A. They cannot find enough money
- B. They want to gain social status
- C. They are influenced by violent media
- D. They want to make new friends