

Name: _____

Class: _____

Group 3

Listen and fill in the blanks.

Today, peregrine falcons live in New York (1) _____. They live on top of bridges and tall buildings.

In the 1970s, the number of peregrine falcons was (2) _____.

Why would a falcon want to live in New York City? There are good reasons. There is lots of (3) _____ for a falcon in the city. A falcon eats birds. The city has many birds. Also, the city reminds a falcon of its real home. Falcons usually live on high cliffs. A (4) _____ is like a high cliff.

We should not try to feed falcons. We should not treat them as pets. We should not come (5) _____ to them. If we keep our distance, we can enjoy watching the beauty of these birds in flight.

