Subject–Verb Agreement

Instructions: Complete each sentence with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. Each of the students _____ responsible for completing the assignment on time. (be)
2. Neither of the two proposals _____ suitable for our current situation. (seem)
3. The number of international students _____ significantly every year. (increase)
4. A number of employees _____ requested permission to work from home. (have)
5. Every student and teacher _____ required to attend the meeting tomorrow. (be)
6. Neither the manager nor the employees _____ willing to accept the new working conditions. (be)
7. Either my parents or my brother _____ going to pick me up at the airport. (be)
8. The quality of the products _____ improved considerably over the past few months. (have)
9. One of the students who _____ regularly absent has finally returned to class. (be)
10. Mathematics _____ always been one of her strongest subjects. (have)
11. The information provided by the witnesses _____ extremely useful to the investigation. (be)
12. Ten thousand baht _____ not enough to cover all the expenses of the trip. (be)
13. More than one applicant _____ expressed interest in the position. (have)
14. Neither John nor his colleagues _____ aware of the changes to the schedule. (be)
15. The teacher, along with several of her students, _____ attending the conference next week. (be)
16. Fifty percent of the students _____ already completed the online survey. (have)
17. There _____ several reasons why the company decided to change its policy. (be)
18. There _____ a serious problem with the computer system at the moment. (be)
19. Every one of these documents _____ to be checked carefully before submission. (need)
20. The news about the company's financial difficulties _____ shocked many investors.

LIVEWORKSHEETS