

ELEMENTS OF A STORY

Write the correct answer on the blank before each number.

- _____ 1. These are the persons, animals, or beings that play roles in the story.
- _____ 2. It is the arrangement or order of events that make up the whole story.
- _____ 3. It refers to the time and place where the events in the story happen.
- _____ 4. This part of the story introduces the characters, the setting, and sets the scene.
- _____ 5. It shows how the characters try to solve or deal with the problem or conflict.
- _____ 6. This is the ending part where the problem is settled and the story concludes.
- _____ 7. It is the main difficulty, challenge, or struggle that the characters face.
- _____ 8. This is the highest point of interest or the most exciting part of the story.
- _____ 9. It is the central message, lesson, or value that the story wants to teach the readers.
- _____ 10. This is the character who is the hero or the main focus of the story.

Setting	Plot	Exposition	Ending
Climax	Falling Action	Moral	Characters
Protagonist	Antagonist	Rising Action	