

Choose the correct option.

- 1) An object in space, like Earth or Mars, that moves around a star.
 - A) planet
 - B) asteroid
 - C) satellite
- 2) You can see many of these shining at night.
 - A) planet
 - B) star
 - C) moon
- 3) A rocky object that travels through space.
 - A) satellite
 - B) asteroid
 - C) planet
- 4) The layer of gases around a planet.
 - A) universe
 - B) orbit
 - C) atmosphere
- 5) The path an object follows around another object in space.
 - A) orbit
 - B) galaxy
 - C) atmosphere
- 6) Everything that exists in space, including stars, planets and galaxies.
 - A) solar system
 - B) universe
 - C) galaxy
- 7) The Sun and all the objects that move around it.
 - A) galaxy
 - B) universe
 - C) solar system
- 8) A very large group of stars, gas and dust.
 - A) galaxy
 - B) solar system
 - C) universe
- 9) An object that moves around a planet. It can be natural or man-made.
 - A) asteroid
 - B) satellite
 - C) star
- 10) You can usually see it in the sky at night.
 - A) planet
 - B) asteroid
 - C) moon