READING PASSAGES (ROADMAP A1 - UNIT 9 CONTEXT)

Text: The Daily Routines and Habits of the Miller Family

The Miller family lives in a comfortable house near a green park in Leeds. Arthur Miller is forty-two years old and works as a manager in an international company. His wife, Clara, is forty years old and works as an English teacher at a language academy. They have two children: a fourteen-year-old son named Oliver and an eleven-year-old daughter named Sophie. They also have an old grey cat named Smokey.

In their living room, there is a large brown sofa with soft cushions. Opposite the sofa, there is a modern television on a low table. A beautiful family photo hangs on the wall above the fireplace. Oliver and Sophie enjoy spending time in the living room after school. Oliver loves playing video games on his console, but his sister hates playing them. Sophie prefers reading books or drawing pictures. Arthur likes watching news programs, while Clara enjoys listening to classical music on the radio.

On weekdays, the family members are very busy. Clara studies Italian online because she wants to visit Rome next summer. She spends two hours every evening practicing grammar and vocabulary because she wants to speak fluently. Arthur does not like studying languages, but he likes doing sport. He goes running in the park near their house every Tuesday and Thursday. On Saturdays, the whole family likes going to a local restaurant together because nobody wants to cook dinner at home. Smokey the cat usually stays on the armchair next to the window all afternoon.
