

English 11.th GradeUnit 11.1.5 My Point of View

Theme: Use of Correct Verb Tenses when Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____ Home Room: _____

General Instructions

Before answering the activities, review the notes and examples that were written in your notebook during class. Use your notebook as a reference to complete all answers. Write neatly, use complete sentences when required, and follow the verb tense indicated in each activity.

Activity # 1Instruction: Identify the grammatical person in each sentence.

1st Person

2nd Person

3rd Person

Example: Safira is going to the store Safira (she) 3rd Person

1. Are you planning a vacation _____
2. Whose book is on the table? _____
3. Did Alexis finish his homework? _____
4. Luisa and Michael decided on a movie. _____
5. Ludwika and Lymarie went to Disney World. _____
6. We broke the window. _____
7. Tony, Maria, and I had lunch together. _____
8. I must take out the garbage. _____
9. It will rain later. _____
10. In what way can we help? _____

Rubric (25 Points)

Activity #1: Grammatical Person Identification (10 points)

Correctly identifies 9-10 answers = 10 points

Correctly identifies 7-8 answers = 8 points

Correctly identifies 5-6 answers = 6 points

Correctly identifies 3-4 answers = 4 points

Correctly identifies 1-2 answers = 2 points

No responses = 0 points

Activity #2: Verb Tense Writing Tasks (15 points)

Dialogue, Story, and Paragraph (5 points each)

Criteria	Points
Uses the required verb tense correctly throughout the writing task	2
Includes the required number of sentences and follows directions	2
Writing is clear, organized, and understandable	1
Total per section	5

Total Score

Activity #1 = 10 points

Activity #2 = 15 points

Grand Total = 25 points

Performance Scale

23-25 points = Excellent

20-22 points = Proficient

16-19 points = Satisfactory

10-15 points = Needs Improvement

0-9 points = Incomplete/Insufficient Evidence of Learning

Reminder: The information needed to complete these activities was discussed in class and recorded in your notebook. Refer to your notes before submitting your work.