WORD BANK – DRAG & DROP

CIRCUS FUN!

Read the conversations and complete the blanks with the words from the box.
Use each word once.

journalist	wheel	rabbit	striped	blonde
disappear	camel	moustache	clowns	parrot

EXAMPLE

BOY: Look at this picture of the circus, Mr Little. I took it when I went there with my aunt.
MAN: Wow! This circus is amazing! Where is your aunt?
BOY: Look at that woman! She's riding a _____.
MAN: Oh, I see her. What's her name?
BOY: Her name's Holly. She helps to look after all the animals in the circus.

1

MAN: Do you know any other people there?
BOY: Yes. Can you see the woman with the _____ hair?
MAN: Oh! She's got a _____ on each of her hands. What's her name?
BOY: She's called Sarah. her parrots are so clever! They follow her everywhere.

2

BOY: Look! There are two _____. I know one of them.
MAN: Which one do you know?
BOY: The one who's riding a bike with one _____. His name's Frank.
MAN: Oh yes, he looks very clever! It's difficult to ride a bike like that.

3

MAN: Who's the man with the _____?
BOY: Which one?
MAN: Ah, sorry. He's the man who's pulling a white _____ out of his hat.
BOY: That's Michael. He can make things appear and _____.
MAN: Oh, that's amazing!

4

BOY: And I know the man with the round thing.
MAN: I can see him. He's making the tiger jump through it. What's his name?
BOY: His name's William. He's the one who's worked in the circus for the longest time.
MAN: That's great!

5

MAN: That man is the manager of the circus, isn't he?
BOY: The one with the _____ tie? Yes. His name's Richard.
MAN: What was he talking to the _____ about?
BOY: He was talking about the next show. It starts at midday tomorrow.

LIVEWORKSHEETS