

First Conditional

We use the first conditional to talk about things that are possible or are likely to happen.

We use the language structure:

If + present simple clause + , + simple future clause (will/won't)

"If I am sick, I will take some medicine."

"If she saves enough money, she will go to Italy."

Activity 1:

Match the clauses on the left with the correct clause on the right.

If they get a dog,

If it rains,

If I read the newspaper,

If I have a child,

If I travel by ship,

If I move house,

I will go across the ocean.

I will hire a moving truck.

I will learn about what is happening in the world.

they will move the party inside.

they will train it to be good.

I will be a parent.

Activity 2:

Insert will/won't into the first conditional sentences so that they make sense.

- 1 If I want to listen to music, I _____ turn the radio on.
- 2 If the soccer player wins her match, she _____ be disappointed.
- 3 If the shopping mall has a sale, the people _____ save money.
- 4 If he dances all night, he _____ have a lot of energy the next day.
- 5 If the electricity is off, the mobile phone _____ charge.
- 6 If it does not get oxygen, the fire _____ die.
- 7 If the customer wants groceries, they _____ leave the shop without paying.
- 8 If the volume is too low, I _____ hear the TV.
- 9 If you go to a restaurant for dinner, you _____ order some food.
- 10 If they write it down, they _____ remember it more easily.