D. We met an Australian student whom accent was very different from ours.
4. This is the language center. Students learn different English accents there.
A. This is the language center which students learn different English accents.
B. This is the language center where students learn different English accents.
C. This is the language center whose students learn different English accents.
D. This is the language center when students learn different English accents.
5. The Canadian teacher is very popular. We saw her on YouTube.
A. The Canadian teacher who we saw on YouTube is very popular.
B. The Canadian teacher which we saw on YouTube is very popular.
C. The Canadian teacher whose we saw on YouTube is very popular.
D. The Canadian teacher where we saw on YouTube is very popular.
6. September is the month. The international English speaking contest starts then.
A. September is the month which the international English speaking contest starts.
B. September is the month where the international English speaking contest starts.
C. September is the month when the international English speaking contest starts.
D. September is the month whose the international English speaking contest starts.
7. The book is about Indian English. My teacher recommended it to our class.
A. The book that my teacher recommended to our class is about Indian English.
B. The book who my teacher recommended to our class is about Indian English.
C. The book whose my teacher recommended to our class is about Indian English.
D. The book where my teacher recommended to our class is about Indian English.
8. The Irish students won the debate. Their arguments were excellent.
A. The Irish students who arguments were excellent won the debate.
B. The Irish students which arguments were excellent won the debate.
C. The Irish students whose arguments were excellent won the debate.
D. The Irish students whom arguments were excellent won the debate.
9. Singapore is a country. English is one of the official languages there.
A. Singapore is a country which English is one of the official languages.
B. Singapore is a country where English is one of the official languages.
C. Singapore is a country when English is one of the official languages.
D. Singapore is a country whose English is one of the official languages.
10. The American movies have subtitles. We watch them in English class.
A. The American movies who we watch in English class have subtitles.
B. The American movies whom we watch in English class have subtitles.
C. The American movies which we watch in English class have subtitles.
D. The American movies whose we watch in English class have subtitles.

Exercise 19: Mark the letter A, B, C or D to indicate the correct arrangement of the sentences to make a meaningful paragraph/letter in each of the following questions.

1.

a. The teachers who come from different countries teach us their native English accents.
b. Dear Tom, I'm writing to tell you about the international English camp that I'm attending in Singapore.
c. Yesterday, we had a special class with an Australian teacher whose pronunciation was quite different from what we usually learn.
d. There are students from Japan, Korea, India and Thailand who all speak English with their own unique accents.
e. I'm learning so much about World Englishes here! Write back soon. Best wishes, Nam

A. b – d – a – c – e
B. a – b – c – d – e
C. b – c – a – d – e
D. e – b – a – c – d

2.

a. Students who want to study abroad need to understand these different accents.
b. English is spoken as an official language in many countries around the world.
c. For example, the English that people speak in India has words from Hindi and other local languages.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d. Each country has developed its own variety of English that reflects its culture and history.
e. This is why international English tests now include recordings that feature speakers from various English-speaking countries.

A. b – d – c – a – e B. a – b – c – d – e
C. b – c – d – a – e D. e – b – d – c – a

Exercise 20: Mark the letter A, B, C or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

1.

Put the sentences (a-c) in the correct order, then fill in the blank to make a logical text.

I attended an international English conference in Malaysia last month. The speakers who came from different English-speaking countries shared fascinating insights about World Englishes. _____.

a. Next, an Indian professor explained the unique vocabulary that Indian English has borrowed from Hindi and other local languages.
b. A British linguist first discussed how American English developed differently from British English after independence.
c. Finally, a Singaporean teacher demonstrated Singlish expressions which combine English with Chinese, Malay, and Tamil words.

A. b - a - c B. a - b - c C. c - a - b D. b - c - a

Choose the sentence that can END the text most appropriately.

A. Malaysia is a multilingual country in Southeast Asia.
B. The conference helped me understand that English belongs to everyone who speaks it, not just native speakers.
C. English grammar rules are the same everywhere.
D. The conference was held in Kuala Lumpur.

2.

(1) _____. First, many students asked whether the teachers who come from America, Britain, and Australia use different pronunciations. (2) _____, parents wondered if their children could understand the various English accents that exist around the world. Additionally, school administrators questioned whether textbooks which focus only on British English were still appropriate. These discussions have led to more diverse teaching materials that include different varieties of World Englishes.

Choose the TOPIC SENTENCE that can BEGIN the text most appropriately.

A. Our international school has many foreign teachers.
B. The introduction of World Englishes in our school has raised several important questions.
C. English is an international language spoken worldwide.
D. Students need to learn English for their future careers.

Choose the option that fills the blank (2) most appropriately.

A. However B. Similarly C. Therefore D. In contrast

(3) _____. Initially, students asked whether the English that Indians speak is as correct as British English. (4) _____, teachers wondered if studying different English varieties would confuse learners who need to pass standardized tests. Moreover, linguists questioned whether all varieties of English which have developed naturally should be equally respected. Consequently, educational programs now include lessons about World Englishes to promote linguistic diversity.

Choose the TOPIC SENTENCE that can BEGIN the text most appropriately.

A. India has the second-largest number of English speakers in the world.
B. The debate about different English varieties has created various perspectives in education.
C. English grammar rules are important for communication.
D. Many countries use English as an official language.

Choose the option that fills the blank (4) most appropriately.

A. Furthermore B. However C. For instance D. Therefore

❖ LISTENING

Exercise 21: Listen to the recording and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

1. What did Anna do last summer?

LIVEWORKSHEETS