

Suggestions + Stative Verbs

Complete the dialogues. Use a suitable suggestion and a suitable stative verb. In some dialogues, accept the suggestion; in others, reject it and suggest another idea.

1. Use different suggestion structures:

You could... / Why don't you...? / What about...? / Shall we...? / Let's...

2. Use stative verbs such as:

think, know, understand, like, love, want, need, believe, remember, prefer, mean, seem 1.

— I can't find enough information for my science project.

— _____

— That's a good idea. I _____ it will help me find something useful.

2.

— I don't understand this grammar exercise at all.

— _____

— I'm not sure. I _____ the explanation in our textbook is too difficult. Maybe we should ask the teacher.

3.

— I need to buy a birthday present for my cousin, but I have no idea what to get.

— _____

— That's interesting, but I _____ she already has one. What about something more personal?

4.

— It's raining, so we can't play football outside.

— _____

— Yes, great idea! I _____ staying at home is actually better today.

5.

— I don't know what this word means.

— _____

— Thanks, but I _____ I can find the meaning myself. I'll check the dictionary first.

6.

— This film is really boring.

— _____

— I'd rather not. I _____ this film might get more interesting later. Let's give it another ten minutes.

7.

— I have a test tomorrow, but I can't remember anything from this topic.

— _____

— OK, cool. I _____ we _____ to revise the most difficult parts first.

8.

— I don't like this restaurant. The food isn't very good.

— _____

— Maybe. I _____ I'd rather try the new café near the school. What do you _____?