

Name:

Class:

Questions

Listen to the dialogue carefully!

1

1. What is Dina's opinion about using smartphones in class?

- A. Smartphones should never be used at school.
- B. Smartphones can be useful if used properly.
- C. Smartphones are only useful for entertainment.
- D. Smartphones should be used freely in every lesson.
- E. Smartphones are not useful for learning activities.

2

2. Why does Raka think smartphones can be a problem?

- A. They are too expensive.
- B. They are difficult to use.
- C. They can distract students.
- D. They cannot access information.
- E. They make students finish their work too quickly.

3

3. What solution does Raka suggest?

- A. Students should leave their smartphones at home.
- B. Teachers should use smartphones instead of books.
- C. Students should use smartphones only when needed for learning.
- D. Students should use smartphones during every lesson.
- E. Teachers should collect students' smartphones before class.

4

4. What can be inferred from the dialogue?

- A. Dina completely disagrees with Raka.
- B. Raka does not see any benefit in smartphones.
- C. Both students believe smartphones can be useful with proper rules.
- D. Both students think smartphones should be banned from schools.
- E. Dina thinks smartphones should be used without any restrictions.

5

5. Imagine Dina wants to continue the conversation by giving another opinion. Which sentence would be the most appropriate?

- A. "I think teachers could also ask students to put their phones away after using them."
- B. "Congratulations on your new smartphone!"
- C. "Can you help me carry these books?"
- D. "You should go to the doctor."
- E. "Where did you buy your smartphone?"

Name:

Class:

Dialogue 2 – Congratulation

Listen to the dialogue carefully!

6. What achievement did Sinta receive?

- A. She won a writing competition.
- B. She won an English speech competition.
- C. She became the English teacher's assistant.
- D. She received a scholarship.
- E. She won a singing competition.

7. Why does Maya congratulate Sinta?

- A. Sinta helped her practice English.
- B. Sinta won first place in a competition.
- C. Sinta became the new class leader.
- D. Sinta helped organize a competition.
- E. Sinta gave Maya a present.

8. What does "Your hard work finally paid off" mean in the dialogue?

- A. Sinta's practice was successful.
- B. Sinta stopped practicing her speech.
- C. Sinta spent too much money.
- D. Sinta did not prepare for the competition.
- E. Sinta decided not to join the competition.

9. Match each person with the information that describes them.

Person

- 1. Sinta ☐
- 2. Maya ☐
- 3. English teacher ☐

Information

- ☐ A. Congratulates Sinta
- ☐ B. Won first place
- ☐ C. Helped Sinta prepare

10. Sinta's friend wants to respond to her achievement in a similar situation. Which sentence would be the most appropriate?

- A. "You should practice more because you failed."
- B. "Congratulations! Your hard work really paid off."
- C. "Can you help me with my homework?"
- D. "I don't think competitions are important."
- E. "You should join another competition because this one was easy."

Name: _____

Class: _____

Dialogue 3 – Offering Help

Listen to the dialogue carefully!

11. Which expression shows Budi's offer to help?

- A. How many chairs do we need?
- B. Can I help you with something?
- C. I'll check them after arranging the chairs.
- D. You look really busy."
- E. About thirty chairs."

12. What does Arman ask Budi to do first?

- A. Prepare the sound system.
- B. Check the microphones.
- C. Arrange the chairs.
- D. Prepare the event schedule.
- E. Clean the school hall.

13. What is the most appropriate response to Budi's offer?

- A. Yes, please. Could you arrange these chairs?
- B. Congratulations on your event!
- C. I think the event is interesting.
- D. You should arrive earlier tomorrow.
- E. I'm sorry to hear that.

14. Why does Budi offer to Arman?

- A. Arman looks busy preparing the event.
- B. Budi wants to cancel the event.
- C. Budi is responsible for all school events.
- D. Arman asks Budi to organize the whole event.
- E. Budi wants to leave school early.

15. Imagine you see your friend carrying many books. Which sentence is the most appropriate way to offer help?

- A. "Why do you have so many books?"
- B. "You should buy fewer books."
- C. "Would you like me to carry some of those books?"
- D. "I think books are important."
- E. "Where did you put your books?"

Name:

Class:

Dialogue 4 – Suggestion

Listen to the dialogue carefully!

16. What suggestion does Nina give to Rian?

A. He should play games earlier.

B. He should reduce his gaming time at night.

C. He should stop going to school.

D. He should study until midnight.

E. He should play games with his friends every night.

17. What is Rian's main problem?

A. He does not like studying.

B. He has too much homework.

C. He sleeps late because he plays games at night.

D. He does not have a regular school schedule.

E. He does not have enough games to play.

18. Why does Nina suggest that Rian reduce his gaming time?

A. Because games are always bad.

B. Because Rian needs enough sleep to concentrate in class.

C. Because Nina does not like video games.

D. Because Rian spends too much money on games.

E. Because Rian's parents do not allow him to play games.

19. Match each problem with the most appropriate suggestion.

Problem

Suggestion

1. Rian sleeps too late.

☐☐

A. Make a regular sleeping schedule.

2. Rian spends too much time playing games at night.

☐☐

B. Reduce gaming time at night.

3. Rian has difficulty concentrating in class.

☐☐

C. Get enough sleep.

20. If you were Nina, which suggestion would be the most appropriate to give Rian based on the whole situation?

A. "You should play games all night because they can make you happy."

B. "You should stop attending school until you feel better."

C. "You should manage your gaming time and have a regular sleeping schedule."

D. "You should ask your friends to play games with you every night."

E. "You should study until midnight so you can forget about playing games."

