What kind of competition is Anna getting ready for?

Anna: Hello, Jack. Hey! I didn't like standing on the _____ but I won the music competition last week!

Jack: Excellent, Anna!
You're always entering _____, aren't you? You're so good at art. Did you win that drawing competition?

Anna: No, I didn't!

Jack: Well, perhaps you'll win next time!

Anna: Thanks. Actually, I'm trying to win another competition now! It's growing the biggest fruit or vegetable. I planted some _____ plants. They're getting really big!

Jack: Wow!

1. Who is helping Anna?

Jack: Your dad knows a lot about growing plants. Is he helping you?

Anna: He's too busy on the _____, but Grandpa's giving me lots of advice.

Jack: That's lucky!

Anna: Yes. He often helps Mum with her _____ garden, too.

2. What is the date of the competition?

Jack: How much longer have you got before the competition date?

Anna: It's on Sunday the _____ ... so I have to be ready by then...

Jack: The 29th of June? That's in three weeks!

Anna: No, I meant _____! Just before our August holiday from school.

Jack: Oh, OK. You've got lots of _____ then...

3. How did Anna find out about the competition?

Jack: Who told you about the competition?

Anna: No-one. I read about it in our village _____.

Jack: Is there any information about it on the village website?

Anna: There might be. I don't know. It won't be easy to win because lots of people know about it _____.

4. What is the first prize?

Anna: The winner gets a great _____!

Jack: Let me guess. A meal for all the family in the new village _____?

Anna: That's right! It's more fun than money.

Jack: And better than one of those little _____ cups!

5. Where is Anna going to go now?

Anna: But I've got to hurry now.

Jack: Why? Where are you going to? To see if your plants are OK?

Anna: I'll do that later. I've got a _____ lesson before I do that.

Jack: Oh, OK! Well, I'm going to go and watch some cartoons. See you tomorrow and good luck!
