Exit test A Units 1–12

Part 1: Email

Write an email to your English-speaking friend (about 100-120 words). Your friend is coming to visit your hometown next month.

In your email, you must:

- Describe your hometown (Use at least two relative pronouns: who, which, that, where).
- Tell them what you can do together there.
- Use appropriate linking words (e.g., because, however, also, and).
- Use an informal tone (e.g., contractions, friendly greeting/sign-off).

Option A: Review	Option B: Pros and Cons	Option C: Narrative
Write a review of a book or film you recently finished. - Summarize the story briefly. - Mention what you liked and disliked (Use adjectives and adverbs correctly). - Use phrases to refer back to the text (e.g., As I mentioned before, The main character...). - Give a final recommendation.	Write a short article discussing the pros and cons of social media sites for teenagers. - Order your paragraphs logically (Introduction, Pros, Cons, Conclusion). - Use formal linking words to contrast (e.g., On the one hand, On the other hand, Furthermore, In conclusion). - Give your own opinion.	Write a short narrative about "My vision for the 21st century" or "My dreams for the future." - Use a clear narrative structure (Beginning, Middle, End). - Pay close attention to the position of adjectives and adverbs (e.g., She spoke quietly. I had a fantastic opportunity.). - Use a variety of synonyms to avoid repetition.
