Part 1: Matching

Match each time phrase with the verb tense it is most commonly used with. Write the correct letter next to the number.

Time Phrases

- A. At the moment
- B. Up to then
- C. Every week
- D. Over the last two years
- E. In three days' time
- F. Two days ago

Verb Tenses

1. _____ Simple Present
2. _____ Present Continuous
3. _____ Simple Past
4. _____ Present Perfect
5. _____ Past Perfect
6. _____ Future

Part 2: Choose the Correct Phrase

Circle or underline the correct time phrase to complete each sentence logically.

1. My brother plays football (now / generally) on Saturday mornings.
2. I was sleeping soundly (at the time / in three days) the storm started.
3. We are moving to a new apartment (next week / two days ago).
4. The students have (just / yet) finished taking their final exam.
5. They had (already / often) eaten dinner before we arrived at the restaurant.
6. She is studying for her medical exams (since 2010 / this week).
7. How long have you been waiting (for / since)?
8. I saw that movie with my friends (last week / so far).

Part 3: Fill in the Blank

Conjugate the verb in parentheses into the correct tense based on the time phrase provided in the sentence.

1. I _____ (work) on this puzzle for three hours, and I am still not done!
2. She _____ (travel) to Japan two days ago.
3. Generally, the train _____ (arrive) exactly on schedule.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Please be quiet. The baby _____ (sleep) at the moment.
5. We _____ (send) the invitations out soon.
6. They _____ (never / visit) Europe, but they hope to go next year.
7. Before that incident, I _____ (trust) him completely.
8. I _____ (read) three books so far this month.

Part 4: Spot the Mistake

Read each sentence below. Look closely at the time phrase and the verb tense. If the sentence is correct, write "Correct." If it is incorrect, rewrite the sentence with the proper verb tense.

1. I have visited the museum last week.
2. We are usually eating dinner at 7:00 PM.
3. She will meet us at the cafe on Friday.
4. Up to then, he didn't realize how much he loved painting.
5. I am working at this company since 2010.

LIVEWORKSHEETS