

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE CORRECT EXPRESSIONS

1. As the new manager, she is the one who calls the _____ in this department.
2. The _____ spent the entire morning laying bricks to build the exterior wall of the house.
3. The _____ chopped the fresh meat and prepared the orders for the customers.
4. The _____ wore his uniform and followed strict military orders during the mission.
5. The _____ scanned all the items at the supermarket checkout and handed me the receipt.
6. She works a _____ job from 9:00 to 17:00, five days a week.
7. After the company suffered heavy losses, they had to _____ dozens of workers.
8. He didn't want to work for a company anymore, so he decided to become _____ and start his own business.
9. Due to her outstanding performance, she was _____ to senior manager.
10. I spent two hours commuting to work, so I asked my boss if I could _____ from home.
11. Thousands of people are currently _____ for a job in the technology sector.
12. Employees who work the night _____ often get paid a higher hourly wage.
13. When she had her baby, she took four months of _____ leave.
14. Working for the government as a _____ usually provides job security and stability.
15. He was very tired because he had to do two hours of _____ last night.
16. After forty years of hard work, my grandfather is finally going to _____ next month.
17. After the disagreement with his boss, he decided to _____ his job and find a new one.
18. The company offered a huge _____ to the executive when he left the firm.
19. If you don't improve your attendance, the manager will give you the _____.

20. The _____ was hired to keep all the financial records of the company up to date.
21. In a large corporation, the CEO is usually the _____ who makes the big decisions.
22. If you want to buy or sell a house, you should speak to a _____.
23. It takes a few weeks for new employees to learn the _____ when they start.
24. He felt stuck in a _____ job with no opportunities for promotion.
25. We have been working for eight hours without a break; let's call it a _____.
26. She worked her fingers to the _____ to finish the report before the deadline.
27. The _____ baked a delicious three-tiered cake for the wedding reception.
28. The manager always makes the interns do the _____, like making coffee and filing papers.
29. He receives his _____ at the end of every month.
30. The government offers financial assistance to people who are on the _____.
31. After university, she spent six months doing a paid _____ at a law firm.
32. We had to call a _____ because the kitchen pipe was leaking water everywhere.
33. The _____ rate has dropped significantly over the past year.
34. Because he only works 15 hours a week, he has a _____ contract.
35. Everyone in the office knows that Sarah is the _____ who manages the budget.
36. A good _____ should always value and support their employees.
37. There were over fifty _____ applying for the single vacancy.
38. The _____ performed a delicate five-hour operation at the central hospital.
39. He had to take _____ leave when he caught the flu.
40. Working as a freelancer can be tough because you don't get a fixed monthly _____.