

Name: Class: Date:

WEEKLY WORKSHEET – SCIENCE

REVISION

Question 1: Match the animals to the correct habitats

The first one has been done for you.

seashore

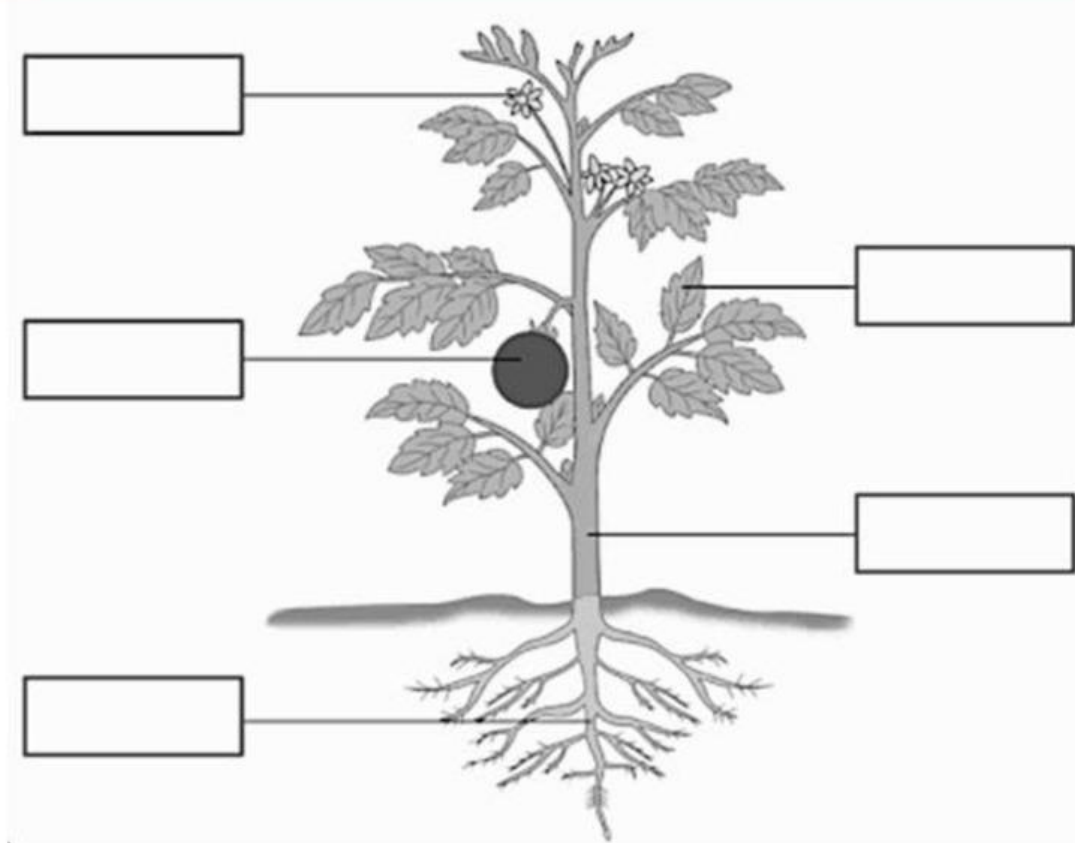

desert

Question 2: Label the parts using the words in the box.

flower leaf stem root fruit

Question 3: Complete the sentences using the words in the box.

The first one has been done for you.

~~dry~~

cold

plant

desert

animals

cool

0. The desert is very hot and dry.
1. A habitat is the natural home of an animal or _____.
2. The forest habitat is _____.
3. Penguins live in a _____ habitat.
4. The sea is a habitat for many _____.
5. Camels can live in the _____.

Question 4: Read the statements.

Write T if it is correct, F if it is not correct.

The first one has been done for you.

1. A forest has many plants and trees.
2. Plants need water and sunlight to grow.
3. Rivers are usually very dry.
4. Some animals live in the rainforest.
5. A seed can grow into a plant.
6. Deserts can be home to animals and plants.

T

Question 5: Complete the sentences using this words.

eagle	die	habitat	animals	grow
-------	-----	---------	---------	------

1. In the hot desert the seed will _____.
2. By the river the seed will _____.
3. The animal with the largest habitat is the _____.
4. The lion and tiger eat big _____.
5. A living thing finds what it needs in the right _____.

Question 6: Circle the correct answer.

push / pull

push / pull

push / pull

push / pull

Question 7: Use the Venn Diagram to compare the big force and the small force.

Draw lines to show your answer.

The first one has been done for you.

